WELCOME TO THE 2015 MIDWINTER CONVENTION

Happy New Year and welcome to "New Awlins." Linda and I are happy to have you here, and we all look forward to getting out and seeing some of the local sights during our time together here at the 2015 Midwinter that will be featuring great youth choruses and our best International Seniors Quartets.

New Orleans has a rich history of culture and music to share. We can only add to the heritage of song during our visit. Its deep French influence can be found all around us in the architecture, the speech, and the harmonies.

During the past few years, the Society's Midwinter Convention has also developed a rich heritage. Building upon the International Seniors Quartet competition, we introduced the Youth Chorus Festival back in San Antonio in 2008.

This element of harmony outreach has grown and the youth bring a vibrant sound to the stage. The Midwinter combination also shares the "late tags" with the more senior members of our Society, long into the night in the hotel lobby.

This sharing is what we all want from this experience – to learn from each other, challenge each other into singing different songs and tags, and return home, full of the energy of the convention weekend, seeking to find new ways to share the harmony of music in performances back in each of our communities.

What a treat to look forward to the All-Chapter Chorus that will be a first during this Midwinter. It represents a new way of bringing chapter members onto the International stage and infusing some new energies into the traditional songs that we learn and sing. I hear the section leaders are some good singers, too!

Events like a successful Midwinter don't just happen without careful planning and execution. Our collective thanks go to our HQ staff and to the local host chapter members and volunteers.

Let's take advantage of the opportunity to meet new friends and sing some songs, as we enjoy our 2015 Midwinter Convention.

Share your music, enrich and expand your world!

Don Fuson, Society President

HARMONY UNIVERSITY CLASS INFORMATION

Wednesday, January 6

Teach Tags Like A Pro! (10 - 11 pm, Chart Ballroom AB)

Tag teaching is tough! In this class, you will learn a variety of teaching methods on HOW to teach tags more effectively. Strategies include breaking the tag into smaller chunks, sol-feg, barbershop numbering, hand signs, and learning tricks. All levels welcome, and yes, we will sing tags!

Donny Rose, instructor

Thursday, January 7

All-Chapter Chorus rehearsal #1 (10 - 11 pm, Belle Chase)

Our 80 man chorus begins full runs of our three all chapter songs, works on the problem spots, and enjoys some fellowship.

Donny Rose, instructor

Friday, January 8

All-Chapter Chorus rehearsal #2 (6 - 7:30 pm, Convention Center room 277)

Gold medalist director and singer Greg Clancy works with our chorus, as well as your section leaders from Musical Island Boys, Forefront, Main Street, A Mighty Wind, and Lemon Squeezy. Why sit and watch others sing, when you can hop up on the risers and join us?

Greg Clancy, instructor

Youth Tag Contest (11 pm - 1 am, Napoleon room)

Come help (or watch) our young folks have a try at our treasured art form. Share a tag, or even learn a tag from our 20 somethings!

Joe Cerutti, Donny Rose, instructors

Saturday, January 9

Gold Medal Hour with the Musical Island Boys (10 - 10:50 am, Hilton Exhibition Center A)

Your 2014 International Champion quartet shares how they finally earned the gold, after many years of being so close. What helped push them over the top? They will also take questions, and even share a few songs.

Musical Island Boys, instructors

The African American Roots of Barbershop and Why It Matters (11 - 11:50 am, Hilton Exhibition Center A)

The class will discuss the little known African American origins of our music, including the New Orleans contribution, and introduce scholar and author Lynn Abbott, whose 1992 article "Play That Barbershop Chord" opened our eyes to a vibrant and thriving barbershop culture that once existed. The significance of this connection to barbershop in 2014 will be explored.

David Wright and Lynn Abbott, instructors

All-Chapter Chorus rehearsal #3 (6 - 7:30 pm, Convention Center room 277)

Gold medalist director and singer Greg Clancy works with our chorus one last time, putting our final touches on our set! Wear a white shirt with black pants, as we are going to the big show right after rehearsal!

Greg Clancy, instructor

Classic Tags (10:30 - 11:30 pm, Melrose)

In this class, we will learn at least 15 tags from the Classic Tags book. All of your favorites, plus a few lesser known gems that are not sung as much! If people are tagging, Donny will go well into the wee hours!

Donny Rose, instructor

Don't miss the 2015 International Collegiate Quartet Contest this summer in Pittsburgh!

This winter/spring will kick-off video qualifications for our Collegiate Barbershop Quartet Contest. The goal of this new opportunity to qualify is to promote this option to new high school and collegiate quartets that sing barbershop but don't know about or are not close enough to our district conventions. Rules and restrictions apply.

Tim Reynolds, Tenor

In the beginning of 2010, a new quartet blew on to the scene from the Dixie District.

Their voices were so well blended that they instantly created A Strong Breeze, but since this wouldn't catch your eye in a concert program, we quickly called it A Mighty Wind ... and a name was born!

members hail from Florida and Texas. With youthful energy, charisma, and a little help from some Frim Fram Sauce, they won the 2014 International Collegiate Barbershop Quartet Contest in Las Vegas this past summer. Since winning, they've kept an incredibly busy schedule, appearing all over the country at chapter shows, youth camps, Harmony University, and now this year's Midwinter Convention.

Starting over twelve years ago while together in high school in Wellington, New Zealand, these self-proclaimed “naive young dreamers” began a journey that started with inspiration from their heroes, the Second Edition quartet (’89 Champion), and took them eventually to a collegiate championship gold medal in 2006, and then perennial International medalists in 2010, 2011, 2012, and 2013.

Then finally, after many long years of triumphs and setbacks, the Musical Island Boys’ dreams came true when they at long last emerged as International Champions this past summer at the Las Vegas international convention.
